

NOTICE OF VACANCY

| | |
|---------------------------|----------------------------------|
| Bargaining Unit: | OPSEU |
| Department / Unit: | Nuclear Medicine |
| Position Title: | Charge Technologist |
| Status: | Full Time |
| Competition #: | |
| Posting Dates: | July 11 – August 11, 2023 |

The successful applicant will work in compliance with all relevant and applicable legislation and Hospital Policies and Procedures, will practice the Bluewater Health Standards of Performance Excellence and will fulfill their role within the Attendance Support Program parameters. The successful applicant will also possess effective communication and interpersonal skills, will have the ability to work independently and as part of a team, and will have strong attention to detail and accuracy.

Qualifications:

- Licensed MRT(NM) with the College of Medical Radiation and Imaging Technologists of Ontario (CMRITO) required
- Certification as a Radiation Safety Officer through an approved Canadian training program (i.e. Radiation Safety Institute of Canada) required
- Leadership education certificate or equivalent preferred

Skill, Ability and Experience:

- Basic proficiency in the use of computers required
- Recent leadership experience required
- Experience working as a Radiation Safety Officer preferred
- Ability to apply critical thinking, problem solving, decision making, conflict resolution and prioritization skills required
- Five (5) years recent experience in Nuclear Medicine required
- SPECT- CT experience required

Principal Duties:

- Assists with the daily operations within the Nuclear Medicine Department
- Safely operates equipment and handling of materials in accordance with all Canadian Nuclear Safety Commission (CNSC) and CMRTO Standards of Practice at all Bluewater Health sites
- Perform responsibilities as the Radiation Safety Officer
- Acts as a coach, mentor, resource and positive role model for new staff and students
- Maintain equipment, supplies and accessories on a regular basis
- Participates in unit/department and Hospital Quality Improvement initiatives
- Completes continuing education requirements as necessary
- Other related duties as assigned

Successful applicant will be considered a multisite employee

Selection will be made on the basis of skill, ability, experience and qualifications as per Article 21.01 of the OPSEU Collective Agreement